

Fallen Idols 3

More True Irony or..
A Simple "Twist" of Fate

Let us now begin with a Kenneth Copeland quote:

God lives on a mother planet

"Heaven has a north and a south and an east and a west. Consequently, it must be a planet." (Spirit, Soul and Body I, 1985 audiotape #01-0601, side 1)

"You don't think earth was first, do you? Huh? Well, you don't think that God made man in His image, and then made earth in some other image? There is not anything under this whole sun that's new. Are you hearing what I'm saying? This is all a copy. It's a copy of home.

It's a copy of the Mother Planet. Where God lives, He made a little one just like His and put us on it." (Following the Faith of Abraham I, 1989 audiotape, #01-3001, side 1)

End of Quotes.

It is 3:07 am, the 22nd of March in the year of Our Lord Jesus Christ 2006. Blessed is the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

"I Watch".

As to Copeland's above quotes, know that this is not Christianity people. Not at all. But it does have its bitter root grounded in Mormonism. And Mormonism or the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, is not true Christianity as well. But more on that in a moment.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. -

Genesis 1:1

God created the Heavens and the Earth. As to "Heavens" this constitutes both the "stars" or "starry" heaven "the universe", and the place where God resides. Therefore it was impossible for Him as Copeland would state it to be on another planet. Know this. And know that before the Creation, God WAS.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with him . - 2

Corinthians 11:3-4

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. -

Galatians 1:6-12

Another Gospel another different Jesus, another different Word. The Pseudo Christos or false Christs, false Words - Logos that Our Lord warned you about. The “Idol”, or Psuedo Christos and false Christs of men’s minds. “Idolatry” in a different form, but still Idolatry.

Now let me pause for just a moment to address the subject of Mormonism. The Latter Day Saints. Trust they are not that. Fallen yes, but saints no.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Those of you familiar with the teachings of the Mormons or LDS (sounds like a disease doesn’t it—it is, as is all false doctrine) as they are currently referred to, will recall that the founder of the movement Joseph Smith, in 1827 received a visitation from and angel named Moroni. Moroni was supposedly a resurrected human and supposedly son of the prophet Mormon. That should provide enough background, if just briefly; more on the history of the Mormon cult will be published in our Apologetics section of our web site in the near future.

First let us take a look at the messenger:

Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so : thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. - Ezekiel 28:13-14

Angels are created beings. You don’t become one after death or resurrection. Those of you familiar with the above verses that I quoted from the Book of Ezekiel, will note that I quoted the scripture that describes Satan before the fall. This has been for a twofold purpose; not only does it tell or speak of the creations of these angelic beings, but it speaks of who the true identity of the Angel Moroni just perhaps may be.

Satan. Or perhaps one of the other angels that fell with him when they were cast down.

Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? - 1 Corinthians 6:2-3

The saints are destined to judge the angels, not become one. Such is a teaching more of the “New Age” religion or religious cult. And yes I suppose due to films like “It’s A Wonderful Life”, and every time “a bell rings, and Angel gets it’s wings”.

People...people..people.. An angel has it’s wings...from the moment it was created. Don’t need to ring any bells there. You would be quite amazed at in how many Christian homes I have seen a plaque state this very same thing. Many of you are just not getting it, and are falling from the true faith. And yes, from Grace. A little bit of leaven, leavens the whole lump.

For it is of FAITH: that it might be by Grace.

And such is not the LDS movement or cult. The true faith. A faith that embraces this “ET” home planet of God as well. But more on that will be addressed in the LDS page. That which I wish to address now is the LDS teaching of the “Baptism of the Dead”.

A baptism by proxy. The LDS movement feels that one of the highest tasks they have is to “stand in” for the baptism of those that have deceased and have never come to know salvation. So that all may be saved. This is a teaching of Universalism. Not Christianity. I was quite dismayed at that not only they embrace such doctrine, but that it was reported in the local paper here, perhaps 3 1/2 years ago,; that someone from I believe perhaps it was Los Angeles, that someone from the Mormon group had stood in by proxy for Adolph Hitler.

This teaching leaves out the aspect of true repentance, the turning one's life around and following Christ. This teaching has its bitter root in the twisting of scripture out of context.

Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? - 1 Corinthians 15:28

As instructed by my Lord I offer a clarification.

And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? - 1 Corinthians 15:28-29

What Paul is actually stating here is perhaps best reflected upon in the following scripture, and yes a look at the original Greek language that the New Testament was written in. First of all the Greek, Strong's numbers provided:

:Else<1893> what<5101> shall they do<4160> which are baptized<907> for<5228> the dead<3498>, if<1487> the dead<3498> rise<1453> not<3756> at all<3654>? why<5101><2532> are they then baptized<907> for<5228> the dead<3498>?

5228huper hoop-er' a primary preposition; "over", i.e. (with the genitive case) of place, above, beyond, across, or causal, for the sake of, instead, regarding; with the accusative case superior to, more than:--(+ exceeding, abundantly) above, in (on) behalf of, beyond, by, + very chiefest, concerning, exceeding (above, -ly), for, + very highly, more (than), of, over, on the part of, for sake of, in stead, than, to(-ward), very. In the comparative, it retains many of the above applications.

The argument that Paul is making is similar to that found elsewhere in scripture. Also Look at the verses following, in 1 Corinthians:

And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. - 1 Corinthians 13:30-31

As I have told you in days past, look at what all of scripture states about a particular subject. Also, the verses proceeding and following those verses taken out of context. This is reflected upon this scripture as well:

And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. - The Gospel According to Luke 9:23

Many of the Lukewarm fallen have forgotten the above two verses. Now let us continue:

The argument that Paul is making is similar to that found elsewhere in scripture.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: - Romans 6:1-5

Into. Strong's number eis ice a primary preposition; to or into

Perhaps this should clarify some vast misconceptions out there. Paul's use of the two different primary prepositions was due to the point he was wishing to establish in verse 31.

I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. - 1 Corinthians 13:31

I have yet to see someone that is dead in body such as Adolph Hitler, die daily bear his cross and identify themselves with Christ.

Bearing and lifting up the true cross of Christ.

Yet scripture is perfect. And those of the Nazi regime are more of this nature, cursed than that of following Christ.

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. - Genesis 12:1-3

For those of you that still wish to use the word “for” in the above scripture from 1 Corinthians, think of it not as in “for” as standing in for the dead, but “for” as in following in the footsteps of Christ.

Also a key note of discipleship, which many of you that are lukewarm, have never perhaps have never to fully comprehend. Following Jesus Christ, and just what that means. And my Lord would have me address this in the upcoming Series “In his Steps” - In the Footfalls of Christ. “In His Steps” - By His guidance. What discipleship really means. Be on the lookout for it, as we will be going into scripture in depth and this promises to be an outstanding series.

Now let us now continue onward.

The other evening I was scanning the channels on the television, and came upon a Copeland broadcast on TBN. He was making a statement that those that defile the Body of Christ are not Christian.

On that part he is correct. I guess the old saying we have back in Iowa, that a blind sow finds an acorn every now and then, may apply here.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. - 1 Corinthians 3:16-17

On that part he is correct. I guess the old saying we have back in Iowa, that a blind sow finds an acorn every now and then, may apply here. An Acorn. A “nugget” of truth.

And the message Our Lord gave me some months back.

“The Prosperity and Seed Faith Teachers have defiled the temple Grounds”

The Goats. Or if you prefer... those that drown others in things of this world...

For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. - 2 Peter 2:18-22

A Blind Sow finds an acorn every now then.

As to the Copeland's and the others of this "Word of Faith"... "Say it and Claim it".

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. - The "Gospel" According to Matthew 12:37

"Say it and Claim it" Or call it..."A Simple Twist of Fate".

And that holds true of Joyce Meyer, Paula White, Kenneth Hagin, Benny Hinn, Paul Crouch, Charles Capps, Happy Caldwell and most of those with ties to Rhema, and this false teaching. At that is just a partial listing. A little bit of Leaven leavens the whole lump. And such quite a lump it is..

One last thing in closing my Lord wishes me to address is this:

Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; - 2 Corinthians 9:5-13

You if you be Christ's were bought and paid for with a dear price. The price paid in blood. You are not your own.

Seed to be sown is not to be seed kept. Seed keep.

that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

And the same applies to the return seed. The bounty. This is how those that to be rich fall into temptation and a snare.

But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

- 1 Corinthians 5:11-13

And yet of all "Christians" in this country only a little more than 4% pay the tithe. You "covet" that which is not yours.

If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. - 1 Timothy 6:3-10

And now just as in closing I would like to quote a statement of Frederick KC Price, one of these from Rhema and “Word Faith Group”, and a statement he made:

“The Reason I Drive a Rolls Royce is because Jesus would have”.

Dr Price. I know that to be a lie. But this remains truth:

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth

Idolatry. My personal belief and hold to the true faith is that it is easier to drive a Rolls Royce through the eye of a needle, than for an idolater to get into heaven. And Christ would have nothing to do with a Rolls.

Same message. Just a different transport.

So Dr. Frederick KC Price, please refrain for once of telling us of your five checking accounts, great “worldly” riches, and leading others into idolatry.

Idolaters. Those of the false prosperity message. That instead of teaching you to be content with what you have, teach you to covet money, and things above the world more than the fruit of righteousness. It amazes me sometimes, how they could be so void of this truth.

And I am speaking now not of Copeland who teach their mini God theology, but of Paula White, perhaps the worst of the bunch. Who continues to twist and distort God’s Word of “taking you to the wealthy place” in order to get your money. When she should have been teaching you give out of a good heart, and not as covetous. Give because God requires you to give. And not as coveting a return to you above those true “first fruits” the first fruits of righteousness.

A much HIGHER state than being bound again within the world.
Remember the words of Jesus Christ and the parable of the sower:

The seed among the thorns. That chokes the Word so that it bears no fruit to perfection.

Idolatry does just that. The lie.

One lie breeds another... lies are like that. A never ending leaven that leavens the whole lump.

Has anyone not noticed that those that teach this abomination that leads to idolatry are all basically from the same group? The same sect? With various offshoots from the same theology of the damned that lead others into perdition and destruction. And you love it so, and still treat them as "Christians"?

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. - Revelation 21:8

"Say it and Claim it".

Or call it a "Simple Twist of Fate".

Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd. Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle. -

Zechariah 10:1-3

Beloved...rightly divide the Word... and flee false teaching.

“So Be it”.

May God grant you insight... and all discernment,

“the Phoenix”.

No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. - The Gospel According to Luke 16:13-15

And from the Clarke Commentary:

Verse 13. No servant can serve two masters] The heart will be either wholly taken up with God, or wholly engrossed with the world.

Verse 14 They derided him] Or rather, They treated him with the utmost contempt. So we may translate the original words which literally signifies, in illum emunxerunt-but must not be translated into English, unless, to come a little near it, we say, they turned up their noses at him; and why! Because they were lovers of money, and he showed them that all such were in danger of perdition.

As they were wedded to this life, and not concerned for the other, they considered him one of the most absurd and foolish of men, and worthy only of the most sovereign contempt, because he taught that spiritual and eternal things should be preferred before the riches of the universe. And how many thousands are there of the very same sentiment to the present day!

Verse 15 Ye declare yourselves to be just.

Ye endeavour to make it appear to men that ye can still feel an insatiable thirst after the present world, and yet secure the blessings of another;

that ye can reconcile God and mammon,-and serve two masters with equal zeal and affection; but God knoweth your hearts, -and he knoweth that ye are alive to the world, and dead to God and goodness. Therefore, howsoever ye may be esteemed among men, ye are an abomination before him.

History repeats itself once more.

Who then with a repentant heart say Lord save me! Save us! Restore!

And as to those that teach falsely?

God's Word is perfect truth. Infallible and without error.

And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. - 2 Peter 2:3

I too weep for the lost of this world, and for what the Church has become. O Jerusalem... O Jerusalem.

I can't help these people. The Goats. Those that teach falsely. God's Word is perfect and without error. But perhaps dear reader I can help and reach out to YOU while there is yet still time. So precious little time.

Beloved, seek out not things of this world but those things spiritual and those fruits of righteousness. And above all love...

Much more than their "Say it and Claim it" Their "Simple Twist of Fate".. Word Faith...

Far exceeding...shaken out and running over...true abundance and true overflow... and yes at the "Heart" of true prosperity...

"The Greatest is Love".
