The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be;
and that which is done is that which shall be done:
and there is no new thing under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:9

“RIDDLE ME THIS”

A Great Mystery

And to the woman were given two wings

of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

Revelation 12:14-15

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Son of man, put forth a riddle,
and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD;

A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field;
he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature,
whose branches turned toward him,

and the roots thereof were under him:
so it became a vine, and brought forth branches,
and shot forth sprigs.

And he spake to them a parable;

Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand The Gospel According to Luke 21:29-30 divers colours - the golden eagle, marked with star-like spots, supposed to be the largest of eagles [Bochart].

Answering to the variety of languages, habits,

and costumes of the peoples subject to Babylon. - JFB

[Came unto Lebanon - continuing the metaphor: as the eagle frequents mountains, not cities. The temple at Jerusalem was called “Lebanon” by the Jews [Eusebius], because its woodwork was wholly of cedars of Lebanon.

“The mountain of the Lord’s house” (Isa 2:2). Jerusalem, however, is chiefly meant, the chief seat of civil honor, as Lebanon was of external elevation. - JFB]

There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Say now to the rebellious house,
Know ye not what these things mean ?
tell them ,

Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things ? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons: Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things , he shall not escape. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it .

Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it ; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent: In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it .

“RIDDLE ME THIS”

A Great Mystery

The following is an excerpt that God has taught me and had me mention before in a recent writing:

“My root was spread out by the waters,
and the dew lay all night upon my branch”.

And the bit of commentary that He guided me to earlier:

From Clarke:

Job 29:19 -

My root was spread out by the waters - A metaphor taken from a healthy tree growing beside a rivulet where there is plenty of water; which in consequence flourishes in all seasons; its leaf does not wither, nor its fruit fall off. See Psa 1:3; Jer 17:8.

He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field;

he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him,

and the roots thereof were under him:

And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature,
And all the trees

of the field shall know that I the LORD

Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and [as THE PHOENIX] I shall multiply my days as the sand.

My root was spread out by the waters,
and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

Unto me men gave ear, and waited,
and kept silence at my counsel.

After my words they spake not again;
and my speech dropped upon them.

And they waited for me as for the rain;
and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

If* I laughed on them, they believed it not;
and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

I chose out their way, and sat chief,
and dwelt as a king in the army,
as one that comforteth the mourners.

Job 29:18-25

And from the JFB Commentary:

sand — (Gen 22:17; Hab 1:9). But the Septuagint and Vulgate, and Jewish interpreters, favor the translation, “the phoenix bird.” “Nest” in the parallel clause supports the reference to a bird.

“I chose out their way, and sat chief,
and dwelt as a king in the army,
as one that comforteth the mourners”.

“The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me;
because the LORD hath anointed me to preach
good tidings
unto the meek;
to proclaim liberty to the captives
and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all that mourn;

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.”

The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season
to him that is weary:

he wakeneth morning by morning,
he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

A little one shall become a thousand,

How tragic a great many of you realize just how corrupted the Church is by this modern “lukewarm” complacent what many call “Christianity” but really is not. How tragic a great many of you realize just how corrupted
the Church really is.

And as a Church never “flowing together”,
no true unity.

And perhaps for this many is the greatest sin of all.

The Sin of complacency. I have heard by some of your teachings that “every dispensation” ends in failure. For YOU of the complacent apostate church. That is an understatement, if I ever heard one.

“Doing nothing about it”
“The Do Nothin’s”

And perhaps for this many is the greatest sin of all.
The Sin of Complacency.

Perhaps it will be these that lack the vision to see, and it is they that will wonder the most, why a new planting has been taking place.

God now so has me assure you,

Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue:
neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh:
neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field:

And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see.

And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him.

And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.
