TRUE STORY:

As the Lord was having me finish the conclusion of this mini message, three of the neighborhood children showed up at my door for a popcycle that I always keep in the freezer for them. Setting out on the back deck,

I had to watch the three of them run.
To see who could run the fastest.

The other day, Kayla one of the little girls across the street, gave me a little multi colored lamb. A stuffed toy of hers, for she will be moving soon, and she wanted me to have something, so I would never forget her. I told her,
I could never forget her.

And then I cried.

Such are the true blessings in life.

That Your Money cannot buy.
